

Primary pupil consultation questionnaire

Schools in Newham have decided to work together and ask pupils some questions about relationships and health education. Thank you for taking part in this consultation, we hope it will make lessons better for everyone.

Jo, who is running this session has done lots of research with pupils before and has a PhD (which means she has spent lots of time researching relationships education). She advises schools about relationships education.

Everything you write or say will be kept anonymous. That means your name will not be used when she talks about what she has found in the research. Your name will be removed from this form once Jo knows she doesn't want to ask you any more questions.

Please answer the questions as fully as possible so that Jo can understand the reasons for your answers.

Where there are multiple choice questions, please circle your answers to the questions.

Discussion questions for primary schools.

Some of you have mentioned things that will help keep you How can we respect and care for people who we might not agree with, or who might not agree with us?

safer, what extra things can be taught in your school to help you stay safe?

20. All families are different but is there anything you think your school could do to help your parents talk to you more easily about relationships, growing up and puberty?
